Our Blanket Stock is Complete in Every Way

Blankets all the way from the low priced Cotton article up to the high priced All-Wool Blanket.

The selection to choose from is expressed in one word—Extensive and the qualities at the several prices are expressed by another word—Dependable. We'll take a point midway on the price ladder this morning and quote both ways from that.

Gray All-Wool Blankets 11-4 size $4.50 the pair and it's a remarkably low price for a genuine All-Wool Blanket this size as every bit of it—warp and filling both—is bona fide wool. Blue and pink stripes, bound with self-colored silk.

At $4.00 and $4.48 the pair there's a variety of all-wool Blankets, 11-4 size in White, Gray and Scarlet. All silk bound, and we'll guarantee they will suit the most critical Blanket purchaser.

In extra large sizes, our 12-4 all-wool Blankets are especial favorites. Either in pure white with colored border, or a dainty plaid; the coloring does not effect the quality, which is the best. An unusual value at $6.75 pair.

If you wish a 10-4 Blanket only, and want a good one—ask to see our Santiago Scarlet Wool Blankets for $3.98 the pair.

Equilumax Pile Blankets, extra large size white Blankets, $2.15 pair. White or Gray Cotton Blankets, heavy weight, colored borders, 11-4 size $1.25 and $1.50 pair.

White Pile Cotton Blankets 10-4 size, with red or blue borders, 75c pair.

"I'm an old Virginian nigger, dats a fact!
On my sholder you may see a little pack,
An' I fills it wid good eatin's, and I goes to stricted meetin's,
And I gets dats while folks' chickens comin back."

"Shall I ever leave my home, whar I was born?
Whar I's head de taters an' tobacco an'
de corn?
I's born right here in Dixie, and 'twas here I took my wife,
And I'll never leave dis neighborhood
while de good Lord spares my life."

Miss Mildred Coles Hodge, of South Boston, Va., is the author of a Twentieth Century Receipt Book, which contains forty-nine of her own tested recipes, is of convenient size and well printed, and is offered to housewives for the very reasonable price of fifty cents. Miss Hodge expects to come to Richmond to live about the middle of October.

Mayo-Walton.

Miss Evelyn Bernard Walton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Walton, and Mr. William Mayo, of Boston, Mass., was married at 2 P. M. yesterday in St. James' M. E. Church by the pastor, the Rev. William A. Cooper.

The bride, gowned in a traveling costume of brown and carrying white roses, was attended by the matron of honor, Mrs. John P. Clifton, in cream white, with picture and black lace, and Miss Emma Mayo, officiated as bridesmaid, and Mr. L. S. Mayo was best man, and Messrs. Howard Smith, Harvey Walton and Mr. J. V. Cherry acted as groomsmen.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for their future home in Dillonville.

The parlor of the First Baptist Church was the scene of a quiet but handsome wedding at 4 P. M. yesterday.

William H. Tatum, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tatum, was married, the Rev. Dr. George Cooper officiating.

Miss Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tatum, was married, the Rev. Dr. George Cooper officiating.

A golden wedding, that of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Ross, the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Sittlering, will be celebrated Sunday, October 11th.

The golden wedding ceremony at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in the morning will be followed by a wedding dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tatum. The couple, who are splendid examples of vigorous old age, came to this country from over Germany, as children, and for many years have been held in great esteem in Richmond. Mr. Ross, as a blockade runner, rendered important service in the way of supplies to the Confederate government during the Civil War.

The Ross family includes two daughters, Mrs. Sittlering and Sister Benedict, of the Benedictine Institute, at Bristol, Va., also six sons, Messrs. Joseph, John, Alex. and Charles, Sylvester and William Ross.

THE BODIES LAID TO REST

Remains of Mrs. Logan and Her Child Buried Here.

BESSIE IS CRITICALLY ILL

Cannot Be Said Yet Whether or Not She Will Recover—Heartrending Scene at Undertaking Room.

More About the Accident.

The remains of Mrs. Charles L. Lozon and Marie, her five-year-old son, both of whom were instantly killed in the railway accident on Tuesday night, were laid to rest yesterday afternoon in River View Cemetery in this city. The services were held at 2:30 o'clock in Billey's undertaking rooms, and were conducted by the Rev. L. B. Betty, pastor of the Clay Street Methodist Church. Then, accompanied by the surviving members of the family, the bodies were taken to the cemetery.

Meanwhile, in the Retreat for the Sick, upon a bed of pain and suffering lay little Bessie, the thirteen-year-old girl, also a victim of the train. Her condition is very grave, and it is still impossible to say whether she will recover or whether she will not. Her three-year-old brother, Randall, who was among the four in the wagon, was taken home yesterday. He was injured but slightly, and he was able to leave the hospital very shortly. His sister suffered more severely, and his mother, Mrs. Lozon, is still in the hospital, her last night, was thought somewhat precarious.

HEARTRENDING SCENE.

The scene in the undertaking establishment yesterday when three of the survivors of the family visited the place was heartrending to the last degree. Along with Mr. Lozon were two daughters, and a son, all of whom were taken to the hospital. The mother and son, and the two daughters, were taken to the hospital. "THE BEST $3.50 SHOES IN THE WORLD"

Writes Frank Canon, U. S. Inspector National Stock Yards, St. Louis, Mo.

"I have found W. L. Douglas shoes satisfactory in every way. They are the best $3.50 shoes in the world."

This is the reason W. L. Douglas makes and sells men's shoes. The same high grade workmanship as W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes is the best in the world.

That Douglas uses Corona Colt shoes there is no doubt. Corona Colt is the highest grade patent leather made.

RICHMOND: 623 East Broad Street.

read, he and his oldest boy riding on a neighbor's lumber wagon, when in a merry mood his wife whipped past them, saying in cheery way, "Good-bye!" to which they also answered, "Good-bye!" and were following a little distance behind when he heard the engine whistle very near the crossing. He thought of his wife and children, but knowing her to be timid about cars, concluded they also would hear, and hoped they were safe one side or the other of the track; but they were driving on the engine's side and had traveled some distance, and the mule could only go slow.

The whistle was so near the crossing, the train going so fast, that they were struck about midway on the track. When he found them his heart sunk; his wife and six-year-old boy dead, his eleven-year-old daughter almost dead and mangled, and his little three-year-old boy badly injured. He picked the baby up and tried to stand him on his feet to look after the others, but he could not stand, and he said to the baby: "Mother is dead and brother is dead," and the motherly lady answered, "Papa, I am dead, too."

Such a scene and such a calamity is hard to depict. A poor man, with only two dollars left in hand, his wife and pet boy dead, his daughter nearly dead, his eleven-year-old daughter almost dead, and his little three-year-old boy badly injured. He picked the baby up and tried to stand him on his feet to look after the others, but he could not stand, and he said to the baby: "Mother is dead and brother is dead," and the motherly lady answered, "Papa, I am dead, too."
